

Who counts as a purple-line leader?

A participant joins on the day she first qualifies. y-axis shared, so a line that drops between panels is an organization losing people to the stricter test.

Five or more events (any type)

+ spans organizing and mobilizing, and clusters into a co-attendance team

Org D leads on the loose threshold (605 repeat-attenders) but collapses under the strict definition (182): its loyal returners are single-mode, not hybrids. Org A and Org B barely move – their returners span both modes and cluster into teams. The largest organization stays thin throughout.
